THE FUTURE OF AMERICAN DIPLOMACY

(Mr. LANGEVIN asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LANGEVIN. Madam Speaker, this is an important week for the future of American diplomacy, especially as it relates to cybersecurity. An open, interoperable, reliable, and secure internet is foundational to U.S. foreign policy and national security in the 21st century, but this vision for the global digital ecosystem faces greater challenges than ever before.

Cybersecurity absolutely must become a core foreign policy priority of the United States and, this week, we have taken a major step forward in that regard.

On Monday, the Department of State formally launched the Bureau of Cyberspace and Digital Policy. On the international stage, this bureau will lead U.S. efforts to uphold standards of responsible state behavior in cyberspace, shape digital standards that govern new technologies, and protect digital freedoms around the world. I congratulate Secretary Blinken and Deputy Secretary Sherman on this significant accomplishment.

I look forward to working with my colleagues to ensure that this new bureau receives the funding it needs to accomplish its critical mission. And beyond that, I also look forward to enshrining this new bureau in statute through the Cyber Diplomacy Act, a bipartisan bill, which will ensure its long-term viability and the preservation of cybersecurity as a key foreign policy priority for the coming decades.

REMEMBERING THE LIFE AND SERVICE OF BILL RAMSAUR

(Mr. CARTER of Georgia asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. CARTER of Georgia. Madam Speaker, I rise today to remember the life and service of a true patriot, Bill Ramsaur.

A native of Atlanta, Bill attended Baylor University in 1959 and graduated with majors in history and religion.

Upon graduation, Bill proceeded to Naval Officer Candidate School and was assigned to an aircraft carrier, the USS Shangri-la. Bill served as the Radio Officer in the communications department during his time aboard the ship. His ship was home-ported in Mayport, Florida, where Bill met his future wife, Gloria, a native of Brunswick, Georgia.

He obtained his master's degree in 1966 from Georgia State University and joined Arthur Andersen & Co., where he became a certified public accountant. Bill worked as an accountant with Arthur Andersen & Co. for 30 years before he and Gloria relocated to St. Simons Island.

Bill loved this great United States with a fiery passion, and was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, Marshes of Glynn Chapter. He also performed as George Washington for thousands of local students and participated in the Veterans Council of the Golden Isles.

His love for his family, friends, and this country will forever be remembered.

REMEMBERING THE VICTIMS AND FAMILIES IN BUCHA AND ACROSS UKRAINE

(Mr. COSTA asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. COSTA. Madam Speaker, we have all seen the horrific images coming out of the Kyiv suburb of Bucha and the surrounding areas, where hundreds of civilians have been killed, left lying in the street by Russian forces.

Bucha residents have recounted watching their family members being raped or shot right in front of them by the Russian forces, but we know this horrific brutality is occurring throughout Ukraine in every region where the Russian Army is positioned.

It is difficult to find words to express the unacceptable brutality that the photos and videos from Bucha have laid evidence of. Russian President Vladimir Putin has cemented himself in history as an evil war criminal.

I would like to use the remainder of my time for a brief moment of silence
